

"CastielLos"

Tango duo composed of the Cantor (author and composer) Hernán "Cucuza" Castiello and guitarist (and son of Cantor) Matthew Castiello

Make up the set since 2013

The duo is known for the mixture between the long history of Cucuza Castiello (singing from 6 and is about to turn 40 years as a tango singer) musician and youth (17 years), youth who do not have deprived and a long history in its activities as a musician.

This mixture also exists when the choice of repertoire, although it is mostly made up of works from the most traditional (it is clear, not the more conventional) alternate with compositions in recent years, so fruitful in authoring and composing new tangos.

As duo were presented in various popular festivals (Festival of Tango of Balvanera, Tango Festival Valentin Alsina) or Torquatto Tasso Cultural Center in the Notable Bar El Faro, in the Club Fernandez Fierro in different milongas as Milonga the Parakultural and La Milonga del Moran, or the City Legislature. Other participants of the documentary film about Tango "Tango in the Tasso" (2011) directed by the Director (author, composer, musician and founder of the group "La Chicana") Acho Estol.

They have performed on TV and radio stations such as "FM 2x4" and FM "Radio Malena," two of the most important radios Tango Argentina, as well as on Radio del Plata.

At the end of 2015 "CastielLos" will enter the recording studio to record their first album.
